To help us in the selection process, each applicant must submit a statement addressing the following questions, a resume or curriculum vitae and attach a WSU transcript to verify your GPA (you may obtain an unofficial transcript from your college's Advising Center or by logging into your myWSU account). Please limit your comments to a one-page typed statement.

- 1) Briefly tell us about yourself; i.e., school activities, community service, etc.
- 2) What are your long-range goals, and how would you benefit from this scholarship?
- 3) How do you personally exemplify the WSU Foundation core values of teamwork, integrity, relationships and service?

The recipient(s) of the WSU Foundation Core Values Scholarship will need to be willing to have a photograph taken for use in publicizing our annual fund-raiser. Also, we would like the recipient to attend at least one WSU Foundation staff meeting during the 2025-2026 school year as our guest. Submission of this application tells us you are willing to comply with both of these requests. Applications must be received by February 1, 2026. Recipients will be notified by March 27, 2026.
